ARGENTINA 47-48

Political violence by the left as well as the right is spreading, and the inability of the government to stop it is causing widespread concern.

Since last weekend security forces killed 20 presumed leftist terrorists in 3 separate clashes. One battle reportedly involved the storming of a Buenos Aires police headquarters by a group of guerrillas; the others occurred in rural areas. Leftists also kidnaped the military administrator of the nation's main labor confederation while another military man, abducted weeks ago, remains captive.

After more than two months in power, the regime has made little demonstrable progress toward carrying out its pledge to curb leftist terrorism, and rightist excesses also are posing problems. The recent kill-
